SCARCE ISSUE OF NOVEMBER 6, 1775

325 30 Shillings, Due Five Years, Very Good to Fine. ($45.-Up)

No. 1650, signed by Dexter, Jos Clarke and Wanton. The note is splitting along the horizontal center fold, the top and side borders are trimmed especially at the bottom right and there are three slits at the right bottom.

RARE JANUARY 15, 1776 ISSUE

326 30 Shillings, Due in Five Years, Good, or so. ($40.-Up)

No. 3126, splitting along the horizontal fold, a piece out of the top just behind the fish head, minor edge slits and scattered, if substantial, moderate staining on both obv. and rev.

EXCESSIVELY RARE
MARCH 18, 1776 ISSUE

327 1 Shilling. Due in 5 years. Very Good. ($100.-Up)

No. 913, signed by Thomas Greene and (?). The note is splitting along the horizontal center fold, is aging and has fraying on the right side. Moreover, the note is contemporaneously backed, still, the only note of this act and denomination offered since 1968.

VERY RARE ELLERY NOTE

328 40 Shillings. Due in 5 years. Very Good, plus. ($100.-Up)

No. 1214, (of 2,000 issued) signed by William Ellery, signer of the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, member of the Continental Congress (1776-86); Commissioner of the Continental Loan Office (succeeding Joseph Clarke - 1786-90); U. S. Collector of Customs 1790-1820. Also signed by Thomas Greene and Joseph G. Wanton. The note is splitting along the horizontal center fold, with mottled staining.

ISSUE OF SEPTEMBER 5, 1776

329 $1/16. Fine. ($100.-Up)

No. 7979, signed by John G. Wanton and Joseph Clarke. This nicely margined if aging note has surface splitting on the rev. along the horizontal center fold, a piece out of the left margin at the end of the fold and three pin holes.

EXTREMELY RARE
1777 WRITTEN DATE NOTE

330 $50. Fine to Very Fine. Due 5 years. ($350.-Up)

No. 1827, signed by Joseph Clarke as Treasurer and dated March 19, 1777. The denomination is written and the note made payable to "Stephen Mumford Esq." This note is quarter folded with a 13 mm. split in the top center and a short split at the bottom edge, but along the vertical center fold. There are also widespread and scattered mild to moderate stains, giving an overall light tan shade to the note. On the rev. there is the endorsement of Mumford and the notation that the note was redeemed. There is also the bottom left corner of a British Coat of Arms watermark, including the traditional Irish harp at the upper left.
This is the second note of this act to be offered in the last 10 years, the first ($60 due in 2½ years) lot 400 in the 1975 Morton sale brought $1,000 in equivalent condition.

JULY 2, 1780
GUARANTEED BY THE U.S.
